Shelley Fishel – tomorrow's VA

Known as The MS Office Maestro Shelley has been a Microsoft Office trainer for over 20 years. Delivering face to face training sessions, training people remotely with various online tools and presenting at events.

Over the last several years Shelley has spoken or presented at a variety of events specifically aimed at PAs and VAs helping them to improve the way they work including ExecSecTech, The PA Show, Hemsley Fraser – PA and Administrator Conference and the Practically Perfect PA online summit.

Helping Administrators keep up to date with Microsoft Office has become a passion.

Tomorrow's VA is an online training suite of courses for busy assistants, helping them make the most of the software they use every day. From Microsoft Word, to PowerPoint, to Excel and Outlook and the new kid on the block Microsoft Teams.
